whose loss will be keenly left in the home.

About a year ago Stephen contracted a blood disease, which stubbornly resisted all efforts at relief, though he was treated at the Bonie Terre hospital, as well as in St. Lodis hospitals. Through it all the little fellow was usually in an optimistic frame of mind.

Funeral services were held at the M. E. Church, South, in this city at 1:30 v. m. Saturday afternoon, conducted by Rev. C. P. Thogmorton, and integrant was in the Masonic cemetery. The last sad rites were attended by many sorrowing relatives and friends, all of whom unite in heartfelt sympathy for the sorely bereaved parents and brother.

HICKS-LENZ

A very pretty but quiet wedding A very pretty but quiet wedding ceremony was solemnized at 9:30 Sunday morning, Nov. 13, 1921, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lenz, of Cross Roads, when their only daughter, Dora Hannah Genevieve, became the bride of Clyde Hicks, of 1433 East Grand Ave., St. Louis, but formerly of Yount, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hicks, of Yount.

The ring ceremony was used and was read by Rev. J. T. Evitts, pastor of the M. E. Church at Fredericktown. The home was beautifully decorat-

The home was beautifully decorated in white decorations and ferns.

The bride was very charming in her beautiful gown of white silk Georgette and carried a large bouquet of bride's roses and ferns.

Immediately following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served, after which the wedding cake was cut by the bride.

by the bride.

The dinner was served on the same table linen that the bride's mother and father ate their wedding supper on.

The groom is a machinist and has been employed several months by the Wagner Electric Co. of St. Louis, but recently has been at his home in Yount.

Several nice and useful presents were received.

The young couple left the following day for St. Louis for a short honey-moon trip. The hide wore a traveling suit of midnighe blue tricotine with hat to match. After their re turn they will reside with the bride's parents.
